Happy Half Term!

It has been an amazing first term for me at Wilton and Barford, it has been a pleasure to get to know everyone and I look forward to the journey that we will all be going on.

We have now set dates for the parent consultations which will be on the 27th and 28th March from 1530 to 1800. We will be letting you know how to book appointments after the break.

Thank you to all who attended the PTA meeting last week. We have now set dates for some really exciting events to take place, along with this newsletter is a flyer detailing these events.

Thank you for your continued support of Wilton and Barford, teachers and parents work together to ensure we can all get the most from the children.

From next term we will be holding celebration assemblies for the whole school on Friday mornings, you will receive a message if your child is to receive a certificate during the day before.

I trust that you will have a peaceful half term break and look forward to all that next term will bring.

Very best wishes,

Richard Boase

A message from our Chair of Governors

Already it is half way through the academic year, where does the time go? But looking back, a lot has happened. We have had lots of change with the opening of the new building back in September, the departure of Mrs Nock in December and the arrival of Mr Boase just a few weeks ago. We hope you have had a chance to say hello to him at some point either around school or maybe at the recent coffee morning. Thanks to those too who took the parent survey, always good to know what people are thinking. We have a great school to celebrate and at this midpoint of the year, I would also like to thank the governors for their contribution mostly behind the scenes in committees and meetings. We are looking at how the school can grow and develop under this new leadership and how we can best support this as governors to gain the best outcomes for the children. Exciting times. Good wishes to you all for the half term break.

Sarah Rickett, Chair of Governors
