Inset Day

Monday 25th
June 2018

Joys of reading!

I hope that you were able to enjoy some quality time together in the snow last week! We are collating a board of 'snow' pictures so if you have any pictures that you wouldn't mind sharing, please do send them in with your children to go up on our board.

Well done to Emerald class this week for their class assembly. It was great they were able to put it together despite missing two days of school last week!

Our re-arranged dress up day took place yesterday and it was fantastic to see so many different characters from a real variety of genres and authors. I firmly believe that reading is one of the single most important skills a child can learn.

As a school we are working to build on the children's love of reading and it was lovely to hear so many children enthusiastic to share their favourite book or character.

In my drive to improve communication with you we have set up a Wilton and Barford Facebook Page. You can find it by going to:

www.facebook.com/wiltonandbarford We will update this page when relevant alongside other methods of communication.

As always, have a great weekend.

Best Wishes,
Richard Boase

Uniform

Wearing school uniform is an important part of Wilton and Barford and we would like to remind all children to wear appropriate uniform to school. This includes correct school shoes.

PE kit should also be in school every day and should consist of shorts, T-shirt, trainers, and plimsolls. If the weather is cold, children are welcome to wear tracksuit trousers and their school jumper or coat.

If you have difficulty in getting the correct uniform, please let us know.

Staffing News

We are very sad to say that Mrs Twinn is leaving us today (9th March) to take up a post at Sarum Academy. We wish her the very best of luck in her new role.

Gardening Group

As the weather starts to get better, we would really like to re-invigorate our outside area and in particular some of our flower beds. If anyone is able to spare a few hours on the afternoon of Wednesday 21st March to come along and begin a tidy up, please let the office know.

We will provide plenty of tea and biscuits!
